PROTECTED A

Update as of 2022-02-16 2000 ET (BLUF reporting cycle is 08:00, 12:00, 16:00 and 20:00).

New information in red below

Bottom Line / Summary:

HQ

- BIS is reporting increased activity related to the COVID Mandate protests.
- On Feb 16, the BIS received a threatening email containing conspiracy theories in the CBSA Contact inbox. Regional Intel from the originating office and the CBSA Intelligence Tactical Operations Center ITOC have been informed.
- On Feb 16, the BIS notified that they received three calls from the same phone number and the caller made several threats against the Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA) as well as to Canadian Law Enforcement Agencies.
- BIS is also reporting an increase in calls relating to the importation of the following items: body armour, ammunition including armour piercing ammunition (Teflon-coated bullets), non-restricted, restricted and prohibited firearms and gas masks. Officers will immediately notify management when one of these calls is received.

Emerson

- As of 1430 ET the Emerson POE has re-opened. The Border Alert and Comms products were sent out.
- As anticipated, protestors began leaving at 1200 CT. The convoy plans to slow roll to Hwy 14 which is approximately 20 km from the POE. RCMP has a plan in place should anyone remain behind however this is not expected. Anticipate that it will take some time to fully clear the highway and re-open the POE.

Coutts

- As of 2000 ET, no current impacts to operations or wait times have been reported.

Pacific Highway

- As of 2000 ET, there are no protests at the POE or on the US side. 10-12 protestors still on site at the corner of 8th and 176th St. RCMP have established checkpoints south of the visitor centre on 176th St. and 184th St. and 0 Ave.

Blue Water Bridge

- As of 2000 ET, no impact to operations or wait times reported.
- Two FN's arrived at the Bluewater Bridge traffic operations with the intent of attending the Ottawa Trucker protest. Both travellers are employed by Personal Info. Personal Info. Personal Info. regarding reportedly refusal of entry to Canada. Both travellers were allowed to voluntarily withdraw their application to enter Canada as they did not meet the requirements for entry. Personal was not present at the POE.

Intelligence Landscape

BLUF: At this time (16 February 2022:1400), the overall threat to CBSA officers and infrastructure is still low, but caution should be exercised in light of recent reporting surrounding IMVE groups. Due to ongoing protests at POEs, there has been a significant operational impact that may result in a threat to Canada's economic security and prosperity.

REGIONAL POE IMPACTS

HQ

- On February 16th, 2022, the BOC was notified by the Border Information Services (BIS) that they received three calls from the same phone number and the caller made several threats against the Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA) as well as to Canadian Law Enforcement Agencies.
- BIS is also reporting an increase in calls relating to the importation of the following items: body armour, ammunition including armour piercing ammunition (Teflon-coated bullets), non-restricted, restricted and prohibited firearms and gas masks. Officers will immediately notify management when one of these calls is received.
- BIS will keep record of the calls and are able to generate a report to determine how many times a particular phone number has called, and how many officers the caller(s) have spoken with.
- BIS functional OPI at HQ notified and engaged.

Coutts

- No changes to report
- There are no impacts to operations or wait times at this time.

Emerson

- As of 1430 ET the Emerson POE has re-opened. The Border Alert and Comms products were sent out.
- As anticipated, protestors began leaving at 1200 CT. The convoy plans to slow roll to Hwy 14 which is approximately 20 km from the POE. RCMP has a plan in place should anyone remain behind however this is not expected. Anticipate that it will take some time to fully clear the highway and re-open the POE.

Gretna

- As of 1630 CT, BWT is less than 60 minutes
- As of 1500 CT, BWT decreased to approx 2hrs. Drivers have reported that trucks are turning around, presumably to attend Emerson, now that it has been officially opened.
- As of 1242 CT the BWT currently stands at 2 hour 45 minutes.

North Portal

- Initial information received through social media monitoring indicated that there was a chance of a protest at North Portal the weekend of Feb 18-20th. This was received and reported Feb 14, 2022.
- The info was that there might be a group of approx. 100 vehicles in a convoy from Yorkton, SK to North Portal, SK. There are no indication of anything other than peaceful intentions at this time.
- Social media chatter around this way down today – so not sure if they have just gone silent because they know we are monitoring or if things are losing steam.
- CBSA PRA region will have intel on site throughout the week/weekend as we did in Coutts and Emerson.
- There are approx. 40 RCMP currently on site in North Portal, SK in preparation for potential protest activity. We have also received word from RCMP that action will be taken early to address any illegal activity
- Media is reporting a large protest planned for North Portal over the weekend. North Portal preparing for large protest this weekend | Regina Leader Post
